Inspite of publication of notice in daily newspaper Dainik Jagran on 10.03.2016, no one appeared on behalf of the respondent to argue this appeal, hence after hearing the State, this appeal has been fixed for passing final order

According to the Learned Government Pleader, appearing on behalf of the State, it has been claimed by the opp. Parties/ respondent that, applicant has himself admitted in the application as well as in his deposition that, the land in question has been transferred in favour of the ancestor of the respondent in the year 1945 and since then there exists substantial structure over the land in question, but the Learned Courts below failed to consider that, according to the Bihar Schedule Area Regulation, 1969, the legislation has empowered the authority to ignore the admission made by the member of Schedule tribe unless corroborated through cogent evidence, and in case at hand, the Learned Special Officer, without corroborating the admission made by the member of Schedule tribe in the application and deposition with cogent evidence, has believed that the land in question was transferred in the year 1945 through Sada Sale

Learned Courts below has relied upon has got no legal sanctity, as according to Section 46 of the CNT Act, no land belonging to member of Schedule tribe can be transferred to a person belonging to member of non-schedule tribe and also according to Indian Registration Act, the oral sale has got no legal sanctity and the performa respondent has been fraudulently dispossessed from the land in question in violation of the provisions of CNT Act.

It is further averred that, on the basis of aforesaid, it can safely be inferred that, the impugned order is an outcome of fraud and misrepresentation and, in this context, according to the verdict laid by our Hon'ble High Court - reported in BLJR 1970 (1) 216, that, - "It is settled proposition of law that a judgement or decree obtained by playing fraud on the court is a nullity and non est in the eyes of law, such judgement/decree - by the first court or by the high court - has to be treated as a nullity by every court, whether superior or inferior. It can be challenged in any court even in collateral proceedings."

Having regard to the discussions made hereinabove, I find that, the impugned order has been passed in haste without

It is settled law that, according to Provision II of Section 71A of the CNT Act, where the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that the transferee has constructed a substantial structure before coming in force of Bihar Schedule Area 1969, he may notwithstanding any other provision of the Act, validate such transfer either upon payment of adequate compensation determined by the Commissioner for rehabilitation or making available to the Scheduled tribe an alternate holding or portion thereof of the equivalent value in the vicinity, but in case at hand, the Learned Special Officer without corroborating the admission made by the member of Schedule tribe through cogent evidence has relied that the land in question has been transferred in the year 1945 and there exists substantial structure upon the land in question before promulgation of the Schedule Area Regulation, 1969. Moreover the sada sale deed upon which the respondent has based their claim has got no evidentiary value in the eyes of law and since the respondent has failed to bring on record any cogent evidence which could prove that substantial structure has been erected prior to promulgation of Schedule Area Regulation, hence the respondent is not entitled get relief envisaged under Proviso II of Section 71A of the CNT Act and furthermore, upon enquiry made by the teams of experts, it was found that, recently 5-6 years ago substantial structure has been erected over the land in question.

All the above fact goes to fortify that, neither the land in question has been transferred before the promulgation of Schedule Area Regulation, 1969 nor there existed any substantial structure over the land in question prior to the year 1969, hence, it can safely be inferred that, the impugned order is bad, irregular and was obtained by fraud and mis-representation and is nonest in the eyes of law.

For these reasons, after condoning the delay, this appeal is allowed and the impugned order passed by the Learned Courts below is hereby set-aside and the authority below is directed to restore the possession of the land in question in favour of the present performam respondent.

Communicate this order to the Learned Special Officer,
