24/11/23

अत्रिलेख उपस्थित। 2nd party has given his final argument as well as his written statement. 1st party is again absent despite giving him last and final opportunity to appear and give his final argument. Thus on basis of the above, keeping into consideration that sufficient opportunity has been given to the 1st party to appear and put up his case, in spite of which he has not complied with the order of appearing in the court and putting up his case, the case is dropped due to dismissal on default and due to lack of interest shown by the 1st party.
