	did not appear in the Comf. The d. o. p argued that even after the formula if o.p. does not appear nor has filed any vakalat-nama. So the Confiscation can be done as matter/proceeding has been filed by go. In the light of the fact given and from the perusal of record documents it is clear that k. oil has been Confiscated from the shop of the Pramod Kumar who is not authorized / licensed by government to sell k. oil. Even after service of notice the o.p Pramod Kumar did not turn up to put forward his argument. Since the k. oil (Kerosin oil) is highly flammable the Comf is of view that sufficient chance has been given to the o.p and the k. oil can be Confiscated without further delay.
